

The Algonquin Road Bridge Project contains proposed retaining walls along Algonquin Road, set back 13 feet from the southern property line of the Des Plaines Park District. The following landscaping features and retaining wall designs have been proposed to minimize the impact on Park District property.

Current View of Algonquin Road (facing south).

Wall Option A

Wall Option B

Wall Option C

Wall Option D

